The vanishing and suffering soul,
The sweet soul, the fragrant soul
Of divine lilies that I have picked In the garden of your thoughts, Where, then, have the winds chased it,
This charming soul of the lilies?
Is there no longer a perfume that remains Of the celestial sweetness
Of the days when you enveloped me
In a supernatural haze,
Made of hope, of faithful love,
Of bliss and of peace?

In those soft lace curtains in the guilded alcove, there is a silence, a cold fatal silence,
a chill which turns me to ice!
And I, who was used to the voluptuous caress of burning lips and passionate arms, now have something quite different!
Now my humble dwelling, you come back to me
gay, secluded, white, as a sweet dream of peace and love!
